BOOK SYNOPSIS

Dating, and certainly not marriage, were not on Agent Harley Tomasello's "to do" list. Thanks to combination of too much tequila and too many dares at a pub on National Decide to Get Married Day, she ends up hitched to the hottest man she's ever met. The next day she wakes with a headache and the knowledge the marriage was definitely consummated—more than once. Working undercover, Dante Rossi had one goal—finding Harley Tomasello. The attractive agent held the key to closing a case he'd been chasing for years. But instead of getting her phone number, he got her hand in marriage. Now they're chasing crime lords and killers, battling their passion for each other along the way. Suddenly 'Until death do you part' has taken on a whole new meaning...
